

STUDENT PACKING LIST AND INFORMATION

Jan. 23, 2016

Great Plains RYLA is held at the Halsey 4-H Camp which is a camp facility in the Sandhills of northern Nebraska about 80 miles south of the South Dakota border. At this location in July, daytime highs are in the 90's with nighttime lows in the 70's. There are ticks, mosquitoes, and poison ivy to contend with, so pay attention to our clothing guidelines. There is also lots of wildlife including snakes, ground squirrels, birds, and even mountain lions have been spotted in the past. This isn't meant to scare or worry you, but rather let you know the environment you will be coming into so you are prepared.

Every student will be provided a water bottle, so you do not need to bring one with you. You will be housed in cabins that are not air conditioned. A fan and extension cord is highly recommended. If you have a power strip, you may want to bring one to share since there are only a few outlets in each cabin. Each cabin has beds with twin mattresses and 10-20 students, junior counselors, and senior counselors will be housed in each one. This may be your home away from home, but only bring what you really need as space is extremely limited and electrical outlets are few. Showers and bathrooms are in or near to each cabin. There is not a need for much money unless you want to purchase something on the way up or the way back. There is a pop machine on site, but you must bring quarters as there isn't change available on site and midweek and there will a special cold treat you can purchase for a few dollars. Most campers bring enough clothes to change during the day after certain physical or dirty activities, but please limit your gear as much as possible.

You will want to rest up for a few days before RYLA. You will be on the move from early in the morning to late in the evening. We have included a packing list for you. This list has proved useful for past attendees.

While Great Plains RYLA is being held at the Halsey State 4-H Camp, the Rotarians of District 5630 and past RYLarians are responsible for nearly every aspect of the program. The 4-H staff provide a few programs items and meals, but other than that, a great group of volunteers involved in Rotary take care of everything else.

Parents are encouraged to mail a note to their son or daughter while at camp. Parents should mail anything no later than Tuesday of camp to ensure that it will arrive by Friday.

General Codes of Conduct:

- Behave in a manner your parents and school administrators would be proud of.
- All students are expected to participate in all activities to the best of their abilities. Accommodations will be made to students with special needs.
- Boys and girls will have separate cabins and bathing facilities. Adults will be staying in each cabin alongside youth.
- Getting students to and from camp are the responsibility of each local Rotary club. Students cannot drive themselves nor have a vehicle at camp under any circumstances.
- If there is a problem with a student's conduct or if students do not follow the rules of RYLA, parents will be required to pick up their son or daughter early from Great Plains RYLA at their own expense.
- Student will not be allowed to show up late or leave early except in cases of emergencies. No exceptions. Parents should call the State 4-H Camp number first if an emergency arises while a student is at camp.
- Students are discouraged from bringing cell phones to camp and are not to bring any other electronics to camp. Students are encouraged to bring a phone card if they must call home. Calling home will only be allowed one evening. Cell phones will be checked in with the RYLA staff and will be turned off. Students will be allowed to use State 4-H Camp phone in emergencies regardless if they have a phone card. If parents need to reach students in case of emergency, they can call the emergency number.

Optional items:

- Watch
- Musical instrument or other items for talent show
- Camera
- Bible or Religious text
